

It's unconscionable that the federal government is attempting to weaken Wisconsin's do not call law. I pay to have a telephone line for my convenience, not so I can be annoyed by non-stop telemarketing calls. And yes, banks, phone companies, and credit card companies are in the "annoying telemarketers" category. Just say NO to attempts to weaken our do not call law.